

To reduce the number of lower limb amputations ilegx works along 3 strategic workstreams.

Interdisciplinary & Inter-professional Education

- Drive awareness of lower limb disease in all specialties acute & community
- Drive awareness of benefits of early referral & intervention
- Improve diagnostic & treatment skills across territorial barriers

- Vascular Surgeons
- Diabetologists
- Dermatologist
- Orthopaedics
- Wound Care Specialists
- Endocrinologists
- Tissue Viability Nurses
- Podiatrists
- Community Nurses
- Vascular Nurses

Early Referral

- Establish clear triggers to referral
- Establish timely referral protocol
- Benefit based wound care approach

- Community Nurses
- GPs
- Podiatrists
- Nursing Staff

Implementation

- ilegx Team award to instill passion for feet
- Raise political awareness of lower limb disease
- Multiply dedicated centres
- Overcome systemic health care barriers

- Clinical Teams
- Healthcare Providers
- Payers
- Policy Makers

S
A
V
E
L
E
G
S

ilegx aims for the early diagnosis of the underlying conditions of leg/foot tissue loss and promotes interdisciplinary collaboration which spans the acute and community services to save legs